IRAQ: Baghdad has announced the murder of its Defense Minister and the wounding of the Interior Minister. The two ministers, both members of the Revolutionary Command Council, have been identified as supporters of President Bakr, who returned to Iraq on 30 June after a short trip to Eastern Europe. Public security director Nazim Kazzar apparently was behind the incident. Kazzar, although a subordinate of the wounded Interior Minister, is thought to report to Iraqi strongman Saddam Husayn Tikriti. The incident may presage an intensified struggle for power within the ruling Baath Party.
